Outfitting women with the tools they need to succeed.

We help women believe in themselves.

Dress for Success Sydney is a not-for-profit organisation that helps women who are looking for work.

Our programs provide donated work clothing, style mentoring, job-search skills, career coaching and networking at no cost to the women using our services.

The Dress for Success experience gives women the tools and support to see the path forward to a new job and a better future.

What to expect at a dressing appointment.

- You will spend an hour with a caring and supportive dressing mentor
- Our mentors are trained volunteers who donate their time to help clients
- Please arrive early to complete a registration form before your appointment
- Your mentor will provide several outfits to try on, based on your job goals and style preferences
- The goal of your dressing mentor is to help style an outfit that reflects your personality and helps you feel confident
- You will take home a full outfit including clothes, shoes, handbag and accessories

Services are also available for court appearances or life events.

Our five-step process.

01 | Interview dressing services

An hour with an experienced and empathetic dressing mentor, trained to create a top-to-toe interview outfit reflecting the personality and goals of each client.

Donated outfits include underwear, quality garments, shoes, handbags and accessories.

02 | Employment support workshops

Corporate professionals present workshops on topics including interview skills, navigating the job market and more. Weekly mock-interview and resume assistance workshops are provided by professional recruitment agencies.

03 | Networking support groups

Connection with DFSS job-search peers also engaged in interviews or new career starts.

04 | One-on-one coaching sessions

Employment or study-focussed coaching by qualified coaches over ten free sessions.

05 | A "Got the Job" return dressing service

A second appointment with a dressing mentor for a 5-day job start mix-and-match wardrobe.
